The Mananaker Store 23,206 Pairs of New Shoes

NEW YORK JOURNAL, DECEMBER 9, 1899.

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN WE turn aside from the Christmas talk, this morning, to tell of some good fortune—ours and yours.

When the Spanish war broke out the Government needed army shoes in great quantities, and in a hurry. Our shoe chief, who is a leather mertime to be waited on, time to chant and shoe planner as well as the responsible head of the largest retail shoe business you or we know of-this shoe chief said he could meet the demands. And he did. Shoemakers who never made army shoes were set to work, as well as those who had-factories at several points were practically turned over to us. And we learned some things-chiefly, how great producers count odd cases of shoes, as we do odd pairs—a nuisance. And we thought out a plan to help them and you-with profit enough to us to serve as a commission. We'd buy these lots-not army shoes, but civilian's dress shoes—as they accumulated, and while still new.

Hence, the very great shoe sales that we hold at times—with

Prices Half or a Third Less Than Regular

Sometimes little inattentions to detail of finish lead merchants to reject shoes ordered—as black soles instead of white, or vice versa; little inequalities of surface, and so on. These lots come, too.

In general style these shoes are up-to-date. The savings are real and as stated. All the shoes are just received from the makers, except an overplus of russets, on which we take the loss because russets are less popular this winter than we expected them to be. Here's the list of shoes-Boys' Shoes, with heels, 11 to 514, at $1.50. With spring heels, 9 to 1314, at $1 and $1.25.
